ABOUT SOUTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY

South Dakota State University is the largest college or university in the state, with an enrollment of 6,700 students.

SDSU is one of 68 land grant institutions in the United States. It was founded by the territorial legislature in 1881 with classes beginning in September, 1884.

SDSU offers more than 125 majors in seven different colleges: Agriculture and Biological Sciences, Arts and Science, Engineering, Home Economics, Nursing, and Pharmacy. There is also a College of General Registration and a Division of Education.

SDSU is located in Brookings, and is in the center of some of the best outdoor recreation country around. Situated in east central South Dakota, Brookings, is along Interstate 29, just 20 miles from the Minnesota border.

Head Coach Janet Stumps

Former Jackrabbit Janet Stumps is the new volleyball-softball coach at South Dakota State University.

Stumps lettered in volleyball in 1977-78-79 and softball in 1980 before earning her Bachelor's Degree in HPER at SDSU in 1980. Stumps has coached volleyball and softball at the collegiate level for eight years, four at the University of South Dakota-Springfield before spending the last four years at Mount Marty College in Yankton.

A 1976 graduate of Holyrood, Kansas, High School, Stumps attended Barton County Community College for one year before enrolling at SDSU. She added a Master's degree from the University of South Dakota in 1985. Her volleyball teams at Mount Marty were 91-80, giving her a 149-112 record as a collegiate coach. Her career record of 50-51 in softball includes a 34-19 stint at USD-S.
